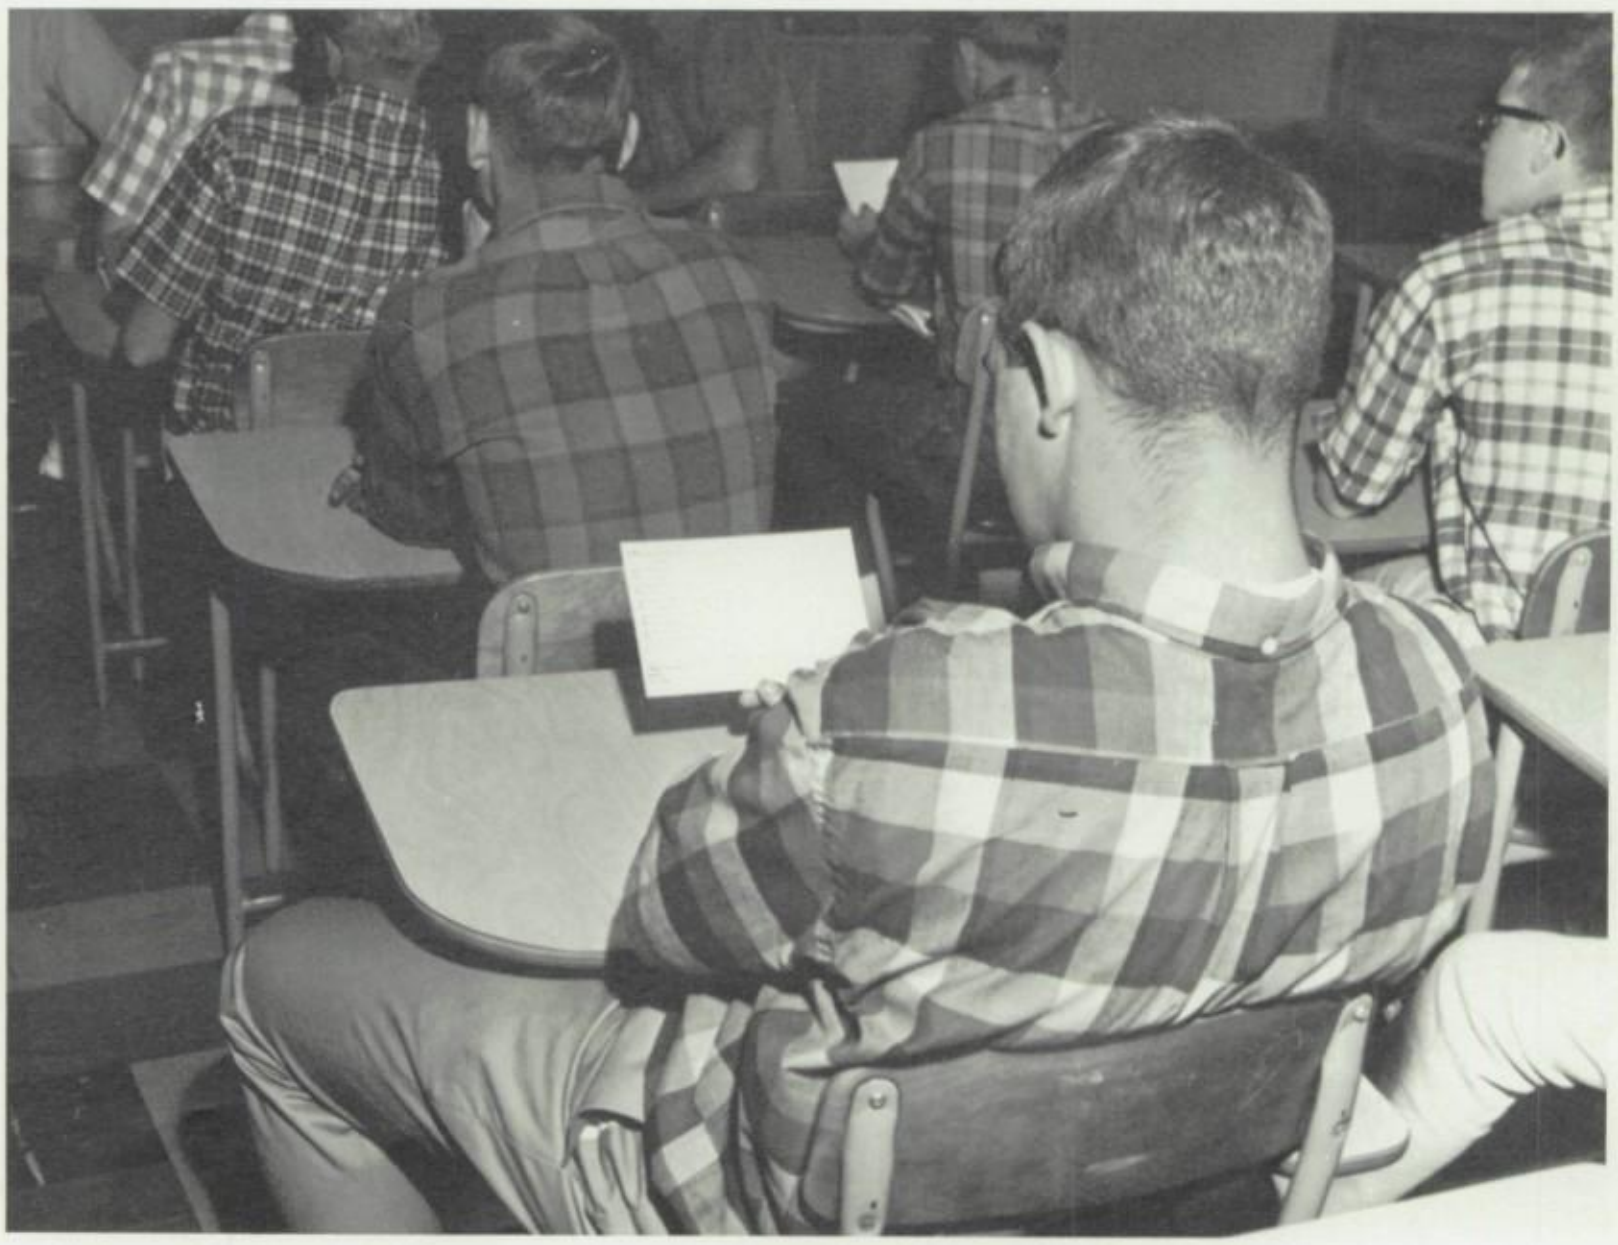
SOUTH SALEM
HIGH SCHOOL

HERE WE GO AGAIN



September 7th saw South again opening her doors after three months of sunny summer vacation. Saxons returned from water skiing, surfing, working in the cannery, travelling, and bean picking to hit the books. Unsure Sophomores, awed by a big new school, still clung tightly to their junior high identities, Juniors struggled to weld themselves into a true "Class," and self-assured Seniors felt confident in their new position as the top "Class." Pappy came over the "P.A." loud and clear with a fresh supply of dandelions and roses. Scheduling was as exciting as ever with some Saxons drawing early classes for the third consecutive year. Many Sophomores and Juniors enjoyed push-ups on the dew-covered football field at 7:30 A.M. while they watched the sun-rise. Other students discovered that they had both an "early" and a "late" class with a study hall in the middle. Class "leveling" helped keep faculty and students on their toes for a few weeks. The football season began with a 20-0 victory over the McNary Celtics. And so began the 12th year of South Salem High School.

CARL E. "PAPPY" ASCHENBRENNER, Master of Roses and Dandelions.

The Administration, under Mr. Carl Aschenbrenner, awar many roses and a few dandelions while guiding the Sax through the 65-66 school year. Among their many duties w struggling with the many organizational problems result from over-population, organizing and directing the curricu and teaching program, guiding A.S.B. officers and cour chaperoning parties, school dances, and other social eve and faithfully supporting the athletic teams.

Mr. Aschenbrenner, Mr. Brown, and Mr. Hauck have oc pied their present positions since South began 12 years a Miss Heringer, Mr. Tilton, and Mr. Ramsdell assumed their po in '58, '62, and '62 respectively.

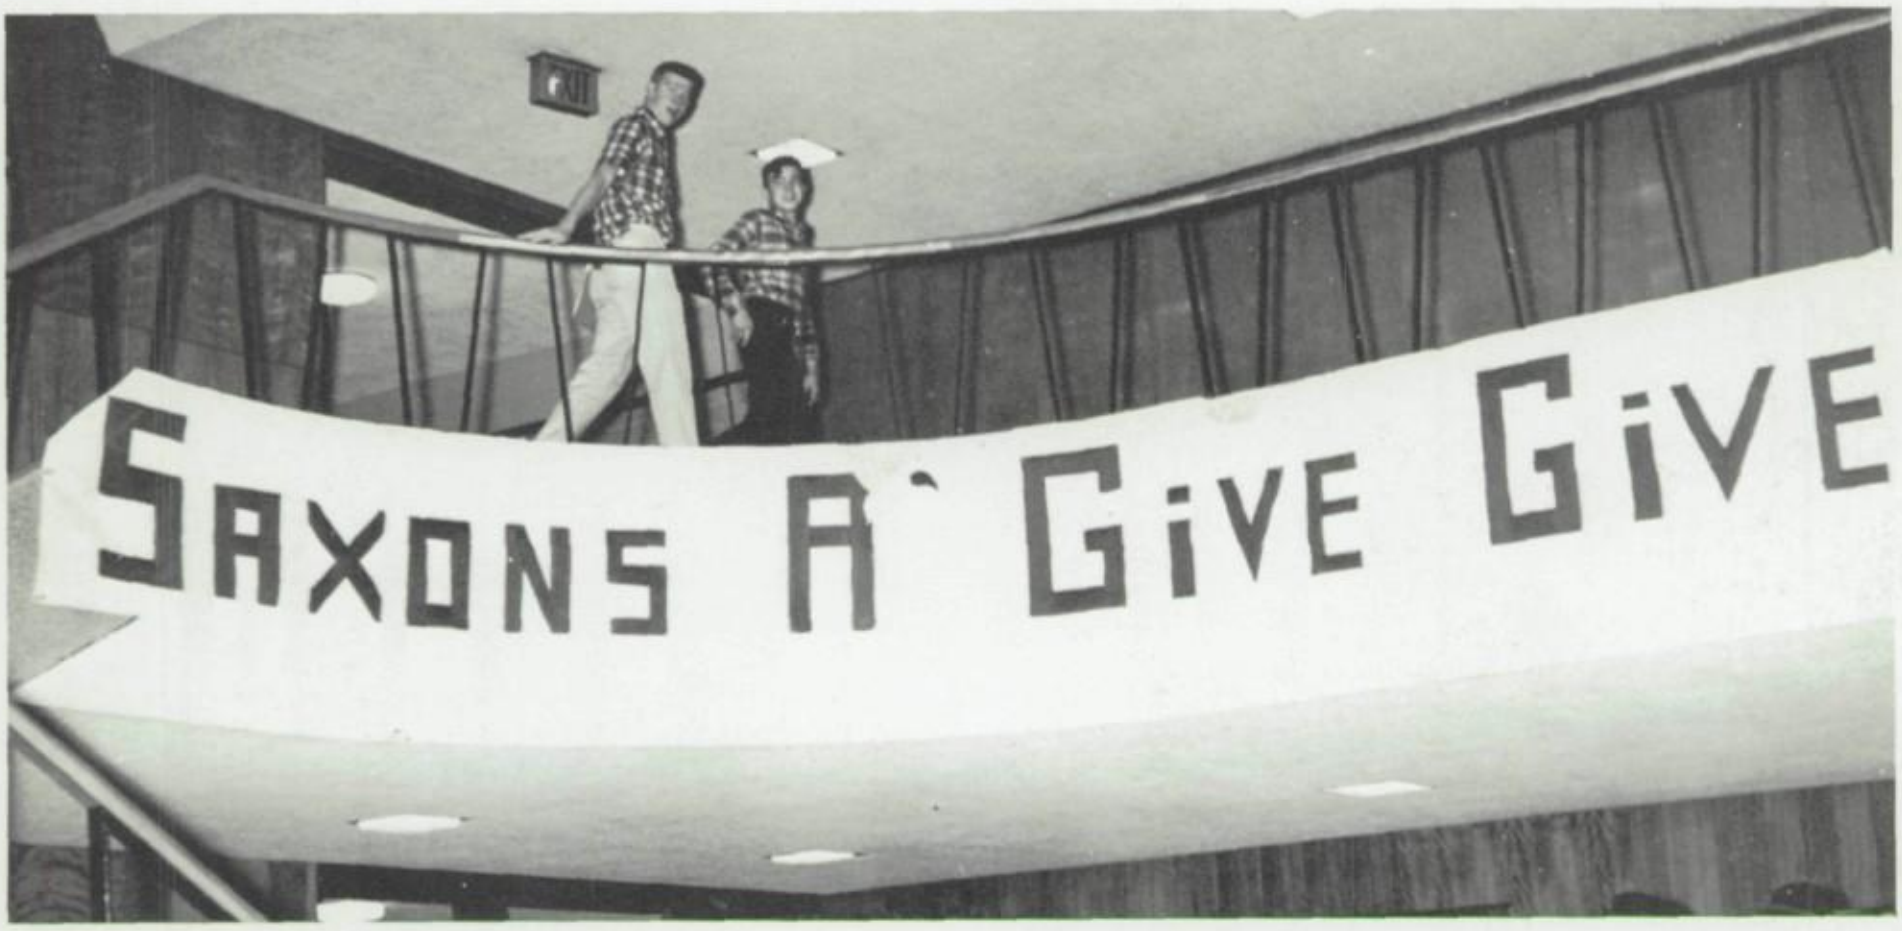
SAXON'S OVERSHOOT GOAL



SURPASS $2,000 FOR U.G.N. DRIVE

South's 1965 United Good Neighbor's Drive surpassed its $2,000 goal by reaching a total of $2097. Such money raising activities as talent shows, dances, Hootenannies, breakfasts, bake food sales, and individual contributions were held during the two week drive. 1965 U.G.N. committee chairman was Claudia Beck. Other committee members were Tom Stein, Student Body Activity Chairman; Walt Apply, Publicity; Beth Glascock, Funds Chairman; and Candy Patterson, Class Competition Chairman. The Juniors were victorious in the class competition with the Seniors coming in a close second and the Sophomore's in last place. Money contributed by Saxons will go to such worthy causes as the Heart Fund, March of Dimes, Children's Aid, and the Boy Scouts.

Mr. DeLoretto kept his vow of eating his hat after his home room was second to Miss Barquiest's in the home room competition.

Boys' League Officers for 1965-66 Scott Corey, Brian Haggerty and Spencer Allen.

The Boys' League made up of all boys in school, presented an all school assembly explaining the offensive defensive techniques used by our Saxon Basketball players. They are also in charge of the election of Boy of the Month each month and Boy of the Year.

Under the guidance of President Leslie Ward and adviser Miss Heringer South Salem's Girls' League carried out five major events.

Big and Little Sister Day helped the incoming Sophomore girls get acquainted with South. The Magazine Drive, headed by Julie Price, provided enough money for five Senior girls to receive $225.00 scholarships. Christmas brought the usual Sweater Drive with a new twist: class competition was held with each class electing a candidate for Saxon Sweater Sweetheart. Sherri Theibeau won the honor and represented the Junior class, which collected the most sweaters for Hillcrest. The Blind School and the Deaf School parties were directed by Jill Bonney. Traditional Cotton Day held April 15 and the Spring Style Show March 8, were the major spring events.

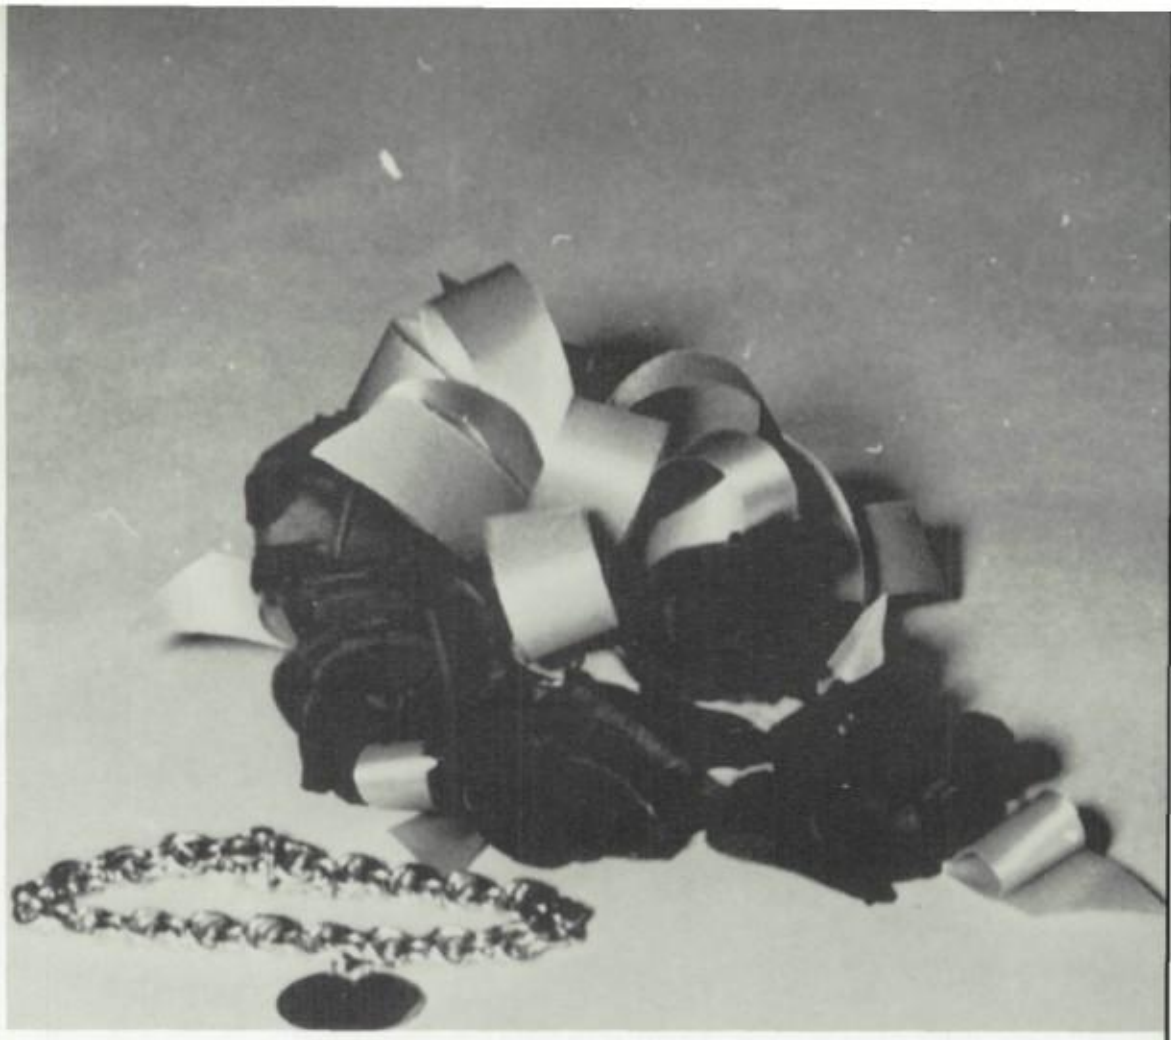
The name of each Boy of the Month is engraved on the Boys' League trophy which is kept on display in the center hall. At the end of the year the boy chosen as Boy of the Year gets to keep the trophy and his name is engraved on the Boy of the Year plaque.



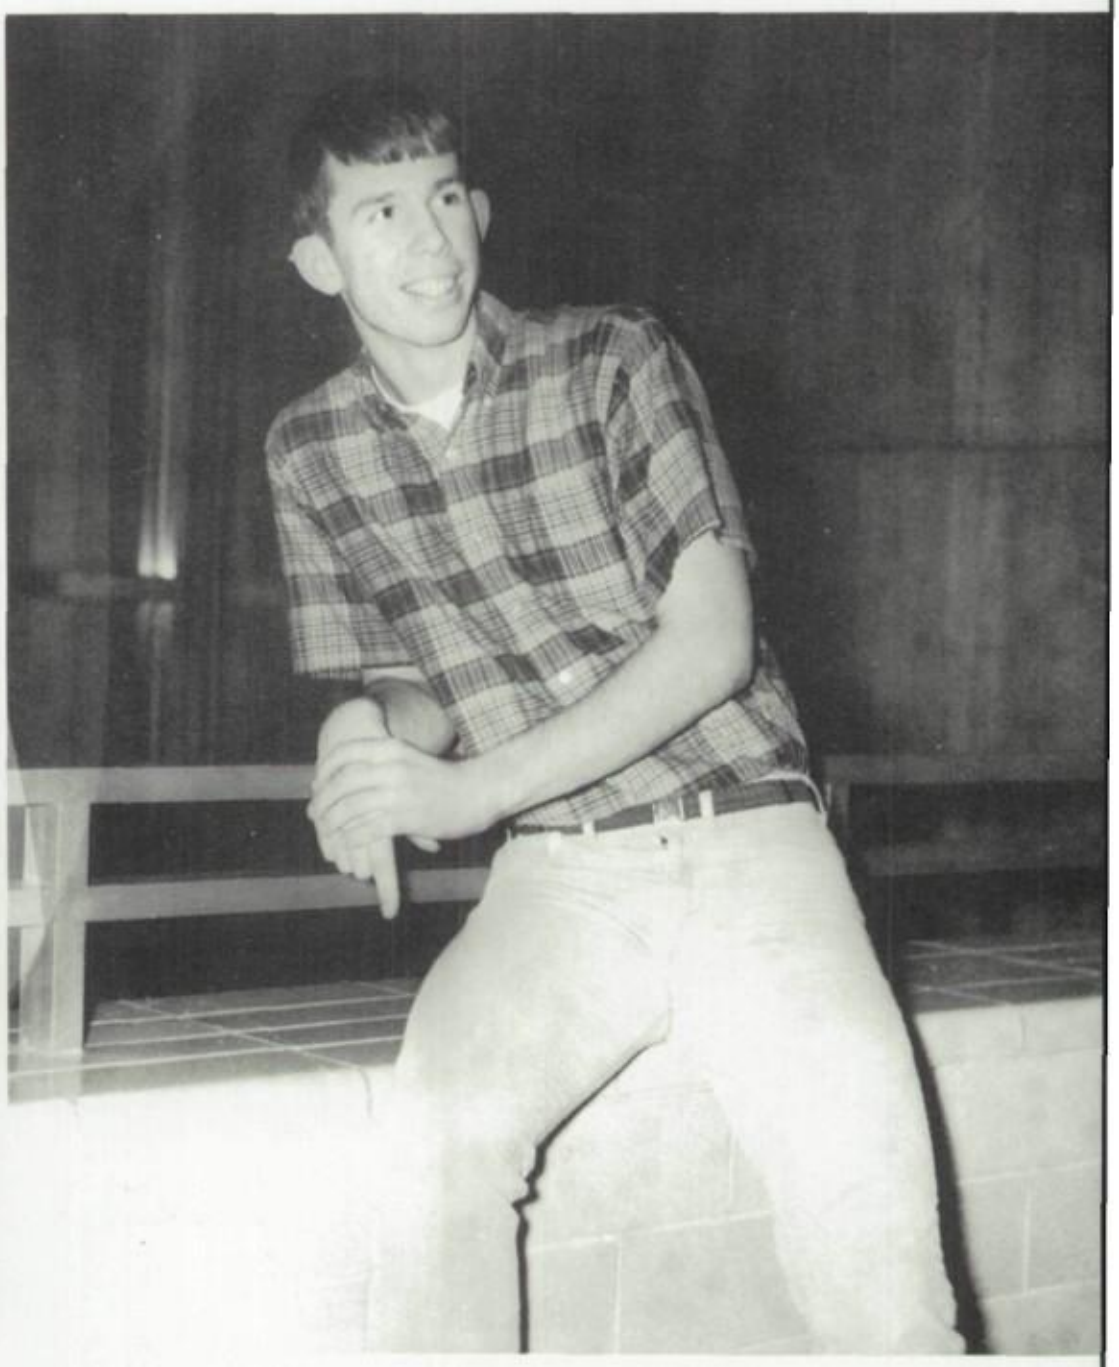
A corsage and charm bracelet are given to each girl of the month. The bracelet is engraved with her name, title, and the month she was honored.

HIGHER AIMS

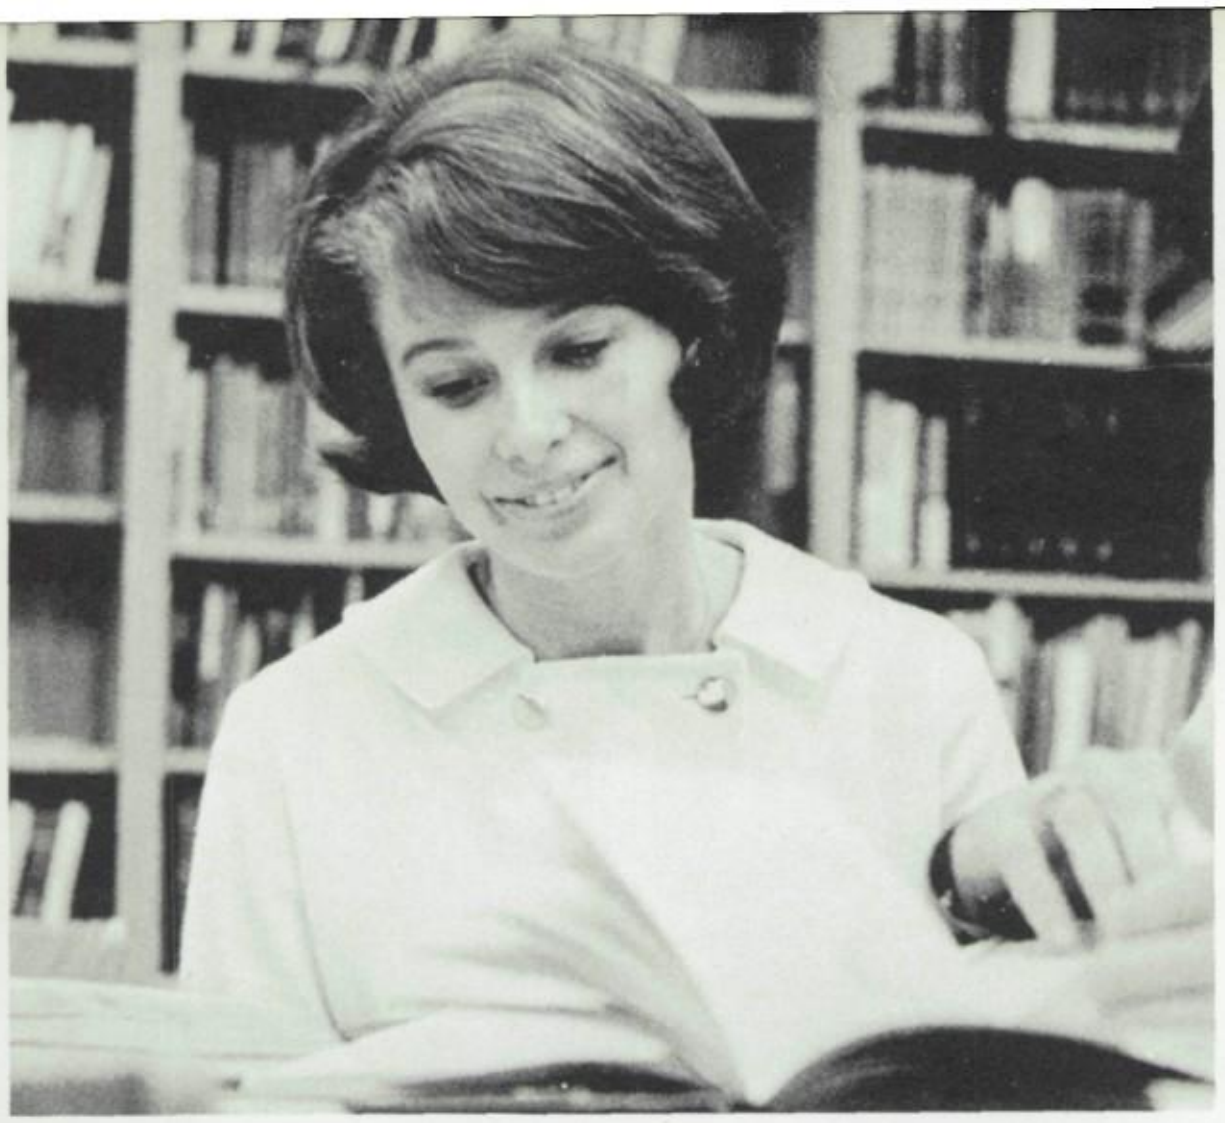
A Boys' League committee, consisting of previous boys of the month, selects three candidates each month for Boy of that month. Final selection is made by a vote of all Saxon men. The A.S.B. president is automatically honored in September and the senior class president is October Boy. The Boy of the Year is selected from the nine boys of the month by a vote of the Boys' League.

Rotarian is a title bestowed upon a senior boy each month for service to the school. He is elected by the Student Council.

Joe Much, A.S.B. president was named the first Boy of the Month and the first Rotarian for the 65-66 school year.



Title of October Rotarian and Boy of the Month was bestowed upon the senior class president, Al Swofford.



Girl of the Month is an honor earned by a senior girl each month. She is chosen for her outstanding qualities in a particular area and is elected by the Girls' League council.

Candy Patterson was Girl of the Month for October. She was chosen for her friendliness.

AND BRIGHTER GOALS

Linda Jones' Saxon spirit brought her the title of Girl of the Month for November.

Rotarian chosen for November was Spencer Allen.

Tom McGilchrist was South's Boy of the Month in November.

GOES TO PRESS

The Clypian, South's bi-weekly newspaper, is produced by a fourteen member staff under the guidance of adviser Mrs. Laura Graham.

Led by editor Bryan Boe, the staff records school activities. The purpose for the Clypian is to give more depth to these activities and to spark student interest and controversy over them, thus making South a better school.

The reporters working on the staff this year were: Kristi Kennon, Terry Wunderlin, Jerrold Ritner, Katie Karlson, Skip Harmon, and Marty Townsend.

With the April 1 issue the Clypian changed to offset printing and was increased to eight pages.

MEET

On August 24, 1965, 18 year old Isabel Eggart Maguina left her home and family in Piura, Peru, to join the John T. Hayward family in Salem. Isabel had been chosen to represent Peru in the exchange student program of the American Field Service. Her American family includes her "father" Mr. John T. Hayward, her "mother" Mrs. Hayward, and "sisters" Joyce and Carolyn.

In Peru, Isabel studied chemistry, physics, Spanish, geology, Peruvian history, abstract algebra, and botany. At South, however, her schedule consists of algebra, U.S. history, physical education, public speaking, English, and biology.

Isabel lists "friendliness" as an outstanding quality of South students. Included in her future plans are marriage and laboratory work.

When asked what she missed most about Peru, Isabel replied, siestas before afternoon classes and frequent trips to the beach.

A helping hand is extended by Mrs. Hayward.

Isabel has displayed her native dress in many public assemblies.

SAXONS PLACE SECOND WITH

The South Salem Football team, a preseason favorite to take the District 8A-1 football crown, began their season with a 20 to 0 win over the McNary Celtics. First District game was against the Sweet Home Huskies and turned into a South Salem scoring spree. With a two game winning streak the Saxon football team traveled to Medford where the Black Tornadors came out on top with a score of 23 to 0. The Saxon's next game was a return bout with the McNary Celtics, this time in league play. The Saxon offense could not move the ball against the much improved Celtic defense but the Saxon defense saved the game late in the fourth quarter, when the Rebels made a goal line stand. The game ended in a 0 to 0 tie. The North Salem Vickings then invaded Bennett Field and handed South their first District defeat. Later the Saxons came up with wins over the teams of Albany and Corvallis. Between these two league games the Saxons added another win to the book by defeating Evergreen of Vancouver. A loss by Corvallis in their final game would have given the District crown to the Saxons, but the Spartins won. South's last game was against

REBEL DEFENSE TOPS IN DISTRICT

Gary Wright number 64, was named to the Shiners All State Team and Guy Colby, lower left, was named alternate.

At the annual football banquet, November 16, Guy Colby was named the most inspirational player on the Saxon football team. Teammates Gary Wright and Bret Adamson were named Lineman and Back of the year.

During the season, senior quarterback Bruce Priem completed 71 passes for a .544 average and Bret Adamson netted 442 yards for a 4.2 average per carry. These performances, in Coach Marv Heater's words, were "very outstanding."

This year's "Rebel" defense held their opponents to 58 points and 1,193 yards while the offense scored 143 points and compiled 1,866 yards. This defense was tops in the district allowing an average of 132.6 yards and 8.2 first downs per game.

FALL ASSEMBLIES ATTRACT SAX

On November 24, Saxons poured into the main gym to watch the presentation of the annual Thanksgiving Assembly, under the direction of First Vice-President Diane McGilchrist. The assembly featured a humorous skit, choral selections by the Saxon choir, and a serious reading by Cathy Collins.

Saxons returned to the gym December 17, for the presentation of the 1966 Coronation Court. Candidates were elected by the A.S.B. from a list of Senior Class nominees. Sherlock Holmes discovered clues leading to the capture of the Court Candidates for the title of First Lady of South. The Candidates and their escorts were Kree Kree Snyder and Joe Much, Gail Horning and Dan Haggerty, Barb Auld and Warren Cooley, Estell Barber and Guy Colby, Julie Price and Craig Chambers, Carole Schunk and Spencer Allan, Liz Nickolson and Jeff Shinn, Leslie Ward and Don Rasmussen, Diane McGilchrist and Alan Swafford, and Candy Patterson and Jeff McKillop.

SOPHS BIGGEST

Approximately 750 Sophomores, the largest class in South's history, were initiated into the fast pace of senior high school on Sept. 7, 1965.

The Iowa Achievement Test given annually to Sophomores was the first major taste of their new environment. The tests took two days and 30 students scored in the ninety-ninth percentile group.

The youngest Saxons elected class officers: Dave Hicks as President, Steve Barger as Vice-President, Molly McCullough as Secretary-Treasurer, and Doug Knights as Sergeant-at-Arms. These officers directed Sophomore class business under the guidance of Mrs. Dorothy Judd and Mr. Art Christison, class counselors.

In sports the J.V. football team consisting of Sophomores finished first in district with an undefeated season, and the Sophomore basketball team finished second.

Under the direction of Gary Frame, the 87-voice A-Capella Choir performed in fifteen programs, including a Fall, Thanksgiving, and Spring Concert, and the North-South-McNary Music Festival. The group also sang for the YMCA Membership Drive Kickoff, Oea Convention, and at the Memorial Coliseum in Portland, and at the Capitol Manor. Christmas was an especially busy season for the choir, as they sang at the Capital Manor at a Meier and Frank breakfast, at the Kiwanas and Lions Clubs' meetings and at the school's Christmas Program. The choir concluded the year by singing for baccalaureate.

Leslie Ward, Nancy Bolin, Bobbi Hundemer, Dutch Ochse, Blaine Shoop, Greg Retzlaff, Bob Wenger and Dan Haggerty, were named to the All-State Choir.

The Girls' Choir with 60 members and the Saxon Gleemen with 30 members sang in four programs this year: the Fall Musical, the Christmas Program, the North-South-McNary Musical Festival, and the Spring Concert.

WE'RE WITH YA

Saxonettes, Rebels, and the Pep Club actively supported Saxon teams this year.

Rowdy Dowds was changed, by a vote of all boys, to Rebels at the beginning of basketball season. The Rebel section was doubled in size this year, and demonstrated their spirit as they peeled down to their white shirts to the tune of the "Stripper" before each game. Rebel Chairman for the year was Warren Cooley.

The 1965-66 Saxonettes consisted of 28 senior girls. The drill team performed at football games, basketball games, and at the state basketball tournament. Saxonettes were:

TIGER TAGGART

Friday's pep assembly climaxed with the singing of the Alma Mater around the flagpole.

March 7-11 were the dates of the first Saxon Spirit Week under the direction of Linda Jones and her Pep Club Cabinet, the rally squad, and the A.S.B. officers. All "spirit" was in preparation for the state basketball tournament.

Home rooms decorated their doors and each class was in charge of a gallery. Home room honors went to senior home room 111, junior 212, and sophomore 240. Individual honors went to Karen Clark, Cyndie Murry and Bruce Preim.

The week was climaxed with a two hour pep assembly in which the Junior class won the skit competition. The rally squad presented "hero" medals to the team members, who then were placed in decorated wagons and paraded to the front of the school.

Junior class gallery captured first place.

The 1965-66 South Salem basketball team began their season with a win over the 1966 state champions North Eugene, and one over South Eugene. After a loss to Sheldon of Eugene, the Saxons began a winning streak that was to extend to nine straight. Teams to fall were Albany and Sweet Home (each twice) and Vancouver, Corvallis, North Salem, McNary, and Lebanon. The string was broken by Corvallis on the Spartin's home court, January 28, 1966. A new winning streak brought victories over North Salem, McNary, Lebanon, Albany and Sweet Home. The Saxon suffered their only loss in the South Salem gym when Corvallis again beat the Saxons. South won their last three district games to accumulate a 16-2 district record, and won the district Championship.

At the State basketball tournament, held for the first time in Portland, South defeated WyEast in the first round. South faced Lincoln the next day and staged a last half rally which fell short by six points. The following day, due to food poisoning, only eight Saxons were able to dress down for the game and four of the eight had been ill the night before. The first four minutes seem to be a Bend walkaway when the Saxons started a rally that didn't end until a Tourney record for a single game was set at 94 points. Dave Olson sunk the shots that tied and broke the record. The following day again at full strength, South defeated Mollala to take fourth place.

Individual honor was received at state by Mark Estill who was placed on the second tourney team. Estill also made first team District 8A-1. Mark led the team in scoring with 303 points for a 13.2 game average. Dave Olson broke a 12 year shooting record by shooting .482 from the field.

The South High Varsity Wrestling team ended their 1965-66 season with a record of 0 wins and 11 losses. Numerous injuries and lack of participation plagued the Saxon matmen.

The matmen did receive many individual honors. On January 17, 1966 senior grapplers Mike Vogt and Pat Johnston competed against two members of the Japanese High School allstar wrestling team. Although both lost, their efforts were outstanding. Mike Vogt was the sole representative to the state meet.

LIGHTS, CAMERA ACTION

Under the direction of Miss Margaret Burroughs the drama students staged Thornton Wilder's "The Happy Journey to Camden And Trenton" on March 24 and 25. Cast members were: Ma Kirby, Barb Dilaconi; Author Kirby, Perry Noris; Stage Manager, Brian Steely; Caroline Kirby, La Donna Thiel; Pa Kirby, Bob Harms; and Beula, Terri Leslie. The play was a success and an enjoyment to all who attended.

Barb Auld, representing Willamette Chapter, was crowned the 1966 District Sweetheart.

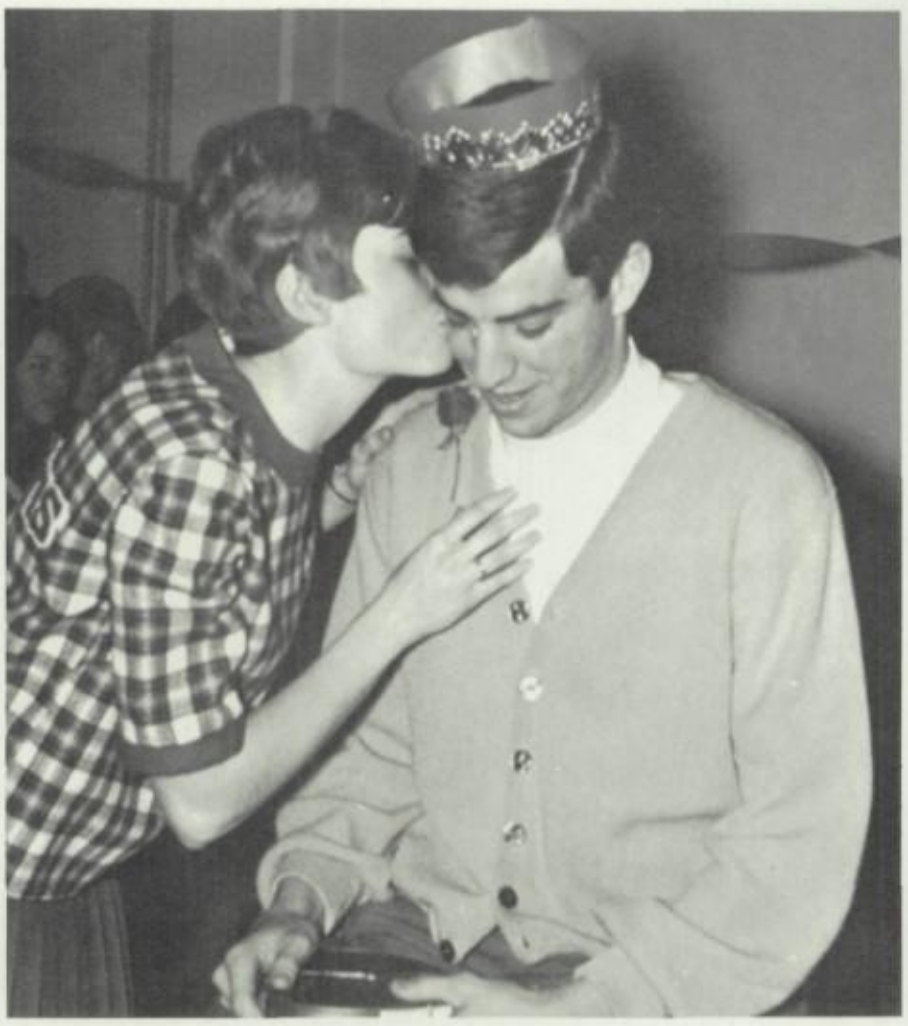
The District DeMolay Doll Dance was on Saturday night, February 12. Held at the Scottish Rite Temple, the dance lasted from 8:30 until midnight. Music was furnished by the "Live Five."

The theme of the dance was "007," and the mood was carried out with an 8½ foot tall statue of a gold woman. General chairman of the dance was Jim Robinson, a South Salem junior.

The main purpose of the dance was to select a District Sweetheart to represent Capitol District #3 at the DeMolay State Conclave. Candidates from the eight chapters which make up the district competed for this title. The two Salem chapters, Willamette and Chemeketa, chose South Salem girls to represent them. Representing Chemeketa Chapter was Estelle Barber, whose escort at the dance was Joe DiFillipi Master Councilor of Chemeketa. Willamette Chapter chose Bard Auld as their representative. She was escorted by Don Rasmussen, Master Councilor of Willamette Chapter.

Chemeketa Chapter's Master Councilor Joe DiFillipi escorted Estelle Barber, their candidate for DeMolay Doll.



Girls dressed in red and white delivered val-o-grams to anxiously waiting Saxons on Feb. 14.

At the noon dance, Paul Nosbisch was crowned "King of Hearts" for receiving the most val-o-grams. His Princes for 1966 were Chuck Milne and Chris Haag.

DAYS OF

HEARTS AND CUPIDS

Queen, Estelle Barber and her court; Julie Price, and Linda Ryan, reigned February 19, during the Sweetheart Ball, sponsored by the Hi-Y Clubs of Salem. Their escorts were Steve Jennings, Craig Chambers, and Mark Roberts.

This year's Junior class was led by Louise Smith, Secretary, Jack Schunk, sergeant-at-arms, Sue Hammer, treasurer, Nancy Clark, vice president, and Chris Haag junior class president.

JUNIORS ARE SPIRIT

Mrs. Ellis and Mr. Tate offer guidance to Juniors.

Six-hundred and seventy-seven Saxon Juniors began a busy year by selling carnations, horns and holding a jelly bean counting contest to come out on top in the U.G.N. Drive collecting $200.00 more dollars than the Sophomore or the Seniors in the class competition.

"Captain Newman M.D.," starring Gregory Peck and Angie Dickenson, was the Junior class movie selection. The show earned $506.95 to put toward the Junior-Senior Prom which was under the direction of Nancy Clark.

Miche Howser and Kathy Mancke were the American Field Service finalist.

The Junior Class Officers, with our counselors Mrs. Ellis and Mr. Tate, among other accomplishments this year guided our class to top recognition in spirit week activities.

TO SOUTH

The 1965-66 speech and debate teams coached by Miss Amanda Anderson brought a total of twenty-four trophies and seven certificates of award to South Salem during the school year. They attended ten tournaments and meets and participated in a number of local events individually. Top honors were garnered when Cathy Collins took first place first in the district meet, then went on to capture the title of top orator in the state. As a result of this achievement, she attended the National Speech Contest held at the University of New Mexico late in June. She was accompanied by Miss Anderson. Dorothy Houck won a trip to New York and the United Nations as a result of her speech given for the Odd Fellows Oratorical Contest. Seven Speakers placed first or second in district competition and thus represented South in the State meet.

South's annual Cotton Day was held April 15. Cotton shirts and dresses were worn in bright, springy colors. Couples often wear matching shirts or shirt and dress.

Maid of Cotton, Louise Smith with Jim Salter, Don Rasmussen, King of Cotton, was crowned by Cathy McFarland.

Kon-Tiki, the Y-Teen Cotton Ball was April 16 at the Starlight Room of the Marion Hotel. Louise Smith reigned as Maid of Cotton and Don Rasmussen as King of Cotton. The Chessmen provided music for the dance. Cathy McFarland of North High was general chairman and Linda Marsh of South served as chairman for the refreshments.

"A WIL

The Spirit of Twirp Day invaded the halls of South Salem High School, May 6, 1966.

The Twirp Dance was held from 8 to 11 p.m. in the East Balcony. Theme of the dance was "A Wild Week-End." Couples were judged for the best costumes. 1st place winners were Don Rasmussen and Gail Horning; 2nd place, Paul Ferry and Sue Burroughs; 3rd, Ron Johnson and Colleen Case.

Grant and the Blue Boys provided live music for the evening. The dance was sponsored by the Boy's League.

The 1966 Golf team won the Up-State tournament and the District Crown and took third in state. The golfers had a 22 win 3 loss record and a 10 win 2 loss record in District. Both losses were to Corvallis, but South avenged the losses by defeating Corvallis in both District and State.

South was led by Chuck Milne, who tied for second in State shooting 143 for 36 holes of golf. Chuck was named to the All-State Golf team. Other members of South Golf team were Doug McMullen, John McCullough, and Mark Roberts.

FIRST IN DISTRICT

Coach Ballantyne

The 1966 Saxon netters brought home many honors as they compiled an impressive 12 win 3 loss record. Lead by Eric Cooley, who finished first, the Saxons won the district matches with Jack Shunk and Bob Plyler finishing third and fourth respectively, and the doubles team of Al Homer and Tom Stein finishing second. At the state meet Cooley captured second while pacing his team to the runnerup position.
